Joint Qualification for Vocational Education and Training (VET) centres in the Field of Cultural Tourism - CULTVET'

In recent years, cultural tourism is the spearhead of any efforts for the diversification of the tourism offer particularly to overcome the seasonality of the «sea and sun» model. CultVET, a 2-year-long project, is aiming to contribute to the further growth of the tourism sector through the development of a European Joint Qualification for VET centres in the cultural tourism field, with a strong work-based component.

CultVET project main output:

Qualification Profile: Definition of a detailed qualification profile based on the European Hospitality Tourism Skills Passport and with the input of focus groups that took place in each partner's country.

Assessment standards: Are going to be designed for all the learning outcomes and project facilities and are going to include both classroom training activities and work-based learning.

Joint curriculum: Through the creation of a working group and in close collaboration with stakeholders the formed joint curriculum is describing specific competencies that learners need to acquire.

Quality Assurance mechanisms: Admission Criteria, Admission Management, Cooperation Agreement, Quality Criteria for the work-based learning component, Capacity Building for SMES, Communication Platform, Communication Protocols, Apprenticeship Training Plan, Training Logbook

Joint Qualification Curriculum

The tourism job market is increasingly requiring young professionals able to combine thorough knowledge and particular skills. The course is aiming to provide an updated vocational offer in the field of Cultural Tourism.

Participants in the course will have the chance to be trained through a Joint Qualification Curriculum based on the needs of the sector, taking into consideration the European experience, collaborating with their european colleagues and learning through their participation in a real work environment. Young people will be able to use their knowledge and skills obtained directly in the field and thus increase their employability.

Cultvet online courses due to the COVID-19 pandemic

The pandemic of COVID-19 which rapidly spread worldwide, affected the face-to-face courses. As a result, the courses were adjusted and performed online using digital platforms. The participants therefore continued their classes online.
